INTRODUCING JAMES HUIZENGA

Hi, I'm James Huizenga. I was born and raised in Fulton, Illinois—a small town that taught me the value of community. I graduated from Northern Illinois University in 2012 and spent the next ten years working in public health as a Health Communication Specialist. It was a rewarding career where I had the opportunity to help people make healthier choices and gain a deeper understanding of their well-being. In October of 2023, I decided to make a big change and transition into senior living, and I haven't looked back since. This is the second senior living community I've had the pleasure of working at, and I'm truly grateful to now be part of the Grand Haven family. From day one, the staff and residents here have been incredibly welcoming. There's a real sense of connection and warmth that makes coming to work every day something I look forward to. Being here has reminded me why I made the switch—because building relationships and making a difference in people's lives matters deeply to me. I'm excited to keep learning, growing, and doing my part to make Grand Haven feel like home for everyone who walks through our doors.

We are grateful to our residents, families, staff, and the entire community for coming together to celebrate this special milestone. A heartfelt thank you to our talented musical guest, Angela Meyer, for providing the perfect soundtrack to our celebration. Also, a special thank you to the QC Parrot Heads for a morning of BINGO, and to everyone who donated to our Basket Raffle and quilt show. Your support, energy, and kindness made the day unforgettable—here's to many more years of friendship, care, and community at Grand Haven!
