

MOMENTS CORNER:

LUNCHEON AT ST. ANN'S

DO YOU WANNA BUILD A SNOWMAN!

Residents had a wonderful time painting and decorating these charming wooden snowmen, adding their own creativity and personality to each one. The snowmen were lovingly handcrafted by Hen and her husband, Klaus, making the activity extra special and meaningful for everyone involved.

BLING BLING HAPPY HOUR

Grand Haven rang in the season with our always-popular Bling Bling Happy Hour, our very own version of a New Year's Eve celebration. Residents were encouraged to dress up, sparkle, and show off their favorite bling while enjoying great company and festive fun. Laughter, music, and plenty of shine made this party a true crowd favorite once again. ✨

From the Desk of Happy Dan

Well folks, winter finally decided to show up! Just when we thought we might coast through another mild season, the cold reminded us who's boss. Thankfully, here at Grand Haven, we never miss a beat—and that's largely thanks to our incredible maintenance team. Whether it's keeping the heat humming, the walkways safe, or responding to the many “just one quick thing” requests, they've worked tirelessly behind the scenes to make sure we stayed warm, safe, and comfortable. A big heartfelt thank-you to them—you truly keep Grand Haven running smoothly.

As usual, the cold weather didn't slow us down one bit. It was another loaded and lively month here, full of learning, laughter, and great company. Our Dementia 101 presentation was both informative and meaningful, giving residents, families, and staff valuable insight and tools. Education is empowerment, and it was wonderful to see such strong participation and engagement.

Of course, no month would be complete without a little sparkle. The Bling Bling Party once again lived up to its reputation—always a hit! Between the glitter, the smiles, and the fabulous accessories, it was pure joy from start to finish. Add in our talented musical guests, who filled the halls with toe-tapping tunes and familiar favorites, and you've got the perfect recipe for happiness.

We also enjoyed a beautiful St. Ann's Luncheon, a special gathering that brought warmth to our hearts despite the chilly weather outside. Good food, great conversation, and even better company—what more could you ask for?

Winter may have arrived, but at Grand Haven, the warmth of our community shines brighter than ever. Until next time—stay warm, stay smiling, and keep spreading the joy!

Warmly,
Happy Dan
